

2017-2018 Hurricane Makeup Days

As a reminder, the school calendar has been updated to include the make-up days due to school being closed when Hurricane Irma came through Florida. School will be in session for students on Friday, February 16, 2018, and Friday, April 27, 2018. These days were originally earmarked as professional development days for faculty.

Moving forward as we enter the holiday season, school will be closed for Thanksgiving on Wednesday, November 22nd, through and including, Friday, November 24th. School will reopen on Monday, November 27th.